The Harry Payne Fund Factsheet

The Harry Payne Fund was founded in 1939 (as the Harry Payne Trust) by Harry Payne, a Birmingham businessman with strong philanthropic ideals.

Fund Aims

The fund aims to:

- Support those who are disadvantaged and help smaller causes where a modest donation can make a difference.
- Support core costs as well as specific projects.

Applicants will be expected to demonstrate evidence of need and – particularly in the case of project finance – where the balance of the required funding is coming from.

What will we support?

- Start-up costs for a new project.
- To extend or develop an existing project.
- To purchase equipment or resources.

Grants of up to £2,000 are available for organisations within a 25 miles radius of Birmingham City Centre. The minimum grant request is £500.

Funding must be spent within 1 year.
